

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Geneva Nuno,

Plaintiff

v.

LC Industries Inc.,

Defendant

Case No. 2:24-cv-01280-CDS-MDC

Notice of Intent to Dismiss Under Rule
4(m) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure

Plaintiff Geneva Nuno's complaint was filed on July 16, 2024. ECF No. 2. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(m) provides, in part, that:

If a defendant is not served within 90 days after the complaint is filed, the court—on motion or on its own after notice to the plaintiff—must dismiss the action without prejudice against that defendant or order that service be made within a specified time. But if the plaintiff shows good cause for the failure, the court must extend the time for service for an appropriate period.

Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m).

To date, there has been no proof of service filed as to defendant LC Industries Inc.

Notice is given that this action will be dismissed without prejudice unless proof of service is filed with the clerk by March 7, 2025. Service on the party must have taken place prior to the expiration of the time limit set forth in Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m), or good cause must be shown as to why such service was not made in that period.

Failure to comply with this notice will result in dismissal of the action without prejudice.

Dated: February 7, 2025
